

Final Evaluation - Rail Security Awareness Test

1. Hazardous materials security awareness is of the utmost importance in our workplace environment and is required by regulation. True or false?
A) True
B) False
2. Compliance with rules, the securing of facilities and equipment, and knowledge of your work area all play key roles in transportation security.
A) True
B) False
3. You need to secure your computer if you are going to leave it unattended.
A) True
B) False
4. The security of railroad property is a high priority. Particular attention should be paid to:
A) bridges, tunnels, and fuel-storage facilities.
B) dispatching, communications, and computer centers.
C) yards with high volumes of hazardous materials shipments.
D) all of the above.
5. How many shipments of hazardous materials are entered into the transportation system daily?
A) 5000
B) 800,000
C) 10,000,000
D) Too many to count.
6. It is permissible to discuss railroad business and train movements:
A) with family and friends.
B) at social functions.
C) only with those who need to know.
D) with any interested person.
7. Security for railroads is the responsibility of:
A) the state police.
B) the Department of Homeland Security.
C) all railroad employees.
D) all of the above, working as a team.
8. What action should you take if you observe suspicious persons on railroad property?
A) Ignore them. They will go away.
B) Yell at them and tell them to leave.
C) Notify the appropriate authorities and provide details about their location and appearance.
D) Stop and physically escort them off the property.
9. If you find a suspicious item on a railcar, should you:

- A) throw the item in the trash.
- B) immediately notify the proper authorities and await further instructions.
- C) bad order the car and send it to the repair facility.
- D) do nothing.

10. People who could cause damage to railroads may be:

- A) trespassers.
- B) vandals.
- C) disgruntled employees.
- D) any of the above.